

I do not think that NJ Do Not Call list should be weakened. Since signing up for this list I have experience 100% drop in telemarketers calling my house. I think this is an excellent idea. It is not in the interest of the public to move backwards. Please let the law stand as it is.